

Numerous recipients of community and social services awards

> From page 16

John Pesce has volunteered with the Santa Fund since 2001.

Community & Social Services Awards

Caledon Meals on Wheels is an organization that delivers hot meals to individuals that are unable to leave their home. They recognized the following volunteers:

Ann Green delivers meals to residents of Caledon once a week for the past 13 years. Ann is a volunteer with the Davis Centre and is an active member of the Bolton U.C.W. She is warm and compassionate and is always willing to share and help.

John Green has been a dedicated driver for the Meals on Wheels program for 10 years. He is a member of the board of directors and sits on various committees. He often researches and provides valuable information regarding clients and volunteers interests.

Fred Kolb has been delivering meals to seniors and individuals who are ill for more than 18 years and never hesitates to cover additional routes in the winter when times are tough.

Pat Kolb has been a driver for more than 18 years to ensure no one goes without a nutritional meal. She is dedicated to helping those in need regardless of her busy schedule as part of dairy farming family.

Carmela Valvano has been a Caledon Meals on Wheels driver for the past 10 years as well as a volunteer visitor for eight years. She also acts as an interpreter for those who speak Italian as their first language.

The Caledon Seniors' Council meets by monthly and have come together to improve the quality of life for all older adults. The council alerts seniors about current political issues that could affect them through a monthly magazine – The Voice. They are an advocacy group who presence is respected within our community.

Barbara Stein has been with the Caledon Seniors' Council for three years, a part of the Caledon Knitters for 10 years and a Caledon Square Dancers for eight years. Barb has been the publisher of the Seniors' News and Views as well as an executive member of the Caledon Seniors' Council. Barb is the driving force for the Abbeyfield seniors housing project.

Andrew Pollock is president of the board of directors of the Cheltenham

Residents' Association for the past five years. He helps to organize events such as Cheltenham Day, Soap Box Derby, Light up the Night' wagon rides in December, and he publishes a semi-annual newsletter for the community. Andrew is a respected representative of his community and always keeps the neighborhoods' best interests in mind.

The Ellwood Home & School Association has always been an advocate for student learning. The members of the association have organized food days, fundraisers and school activities as well as volunteering their time in the classrooms. Volunteers include Angie Airdie, Diane Antonangelo, Debbie Barber, Selina Barber, Christina Bodner, Kim Daniels, Michelle DeSantis, Ingrid Enns, Leslie Foisey, Lynn Howard, Julie Hymers, Dawn Jones, Wendy Labrier, Dale Lo, Cheryl Lowe, Sandra Mascarenhas, Nancy Middleton, Karen Morganroth Rebin, Susan Prowse, Lynn Rowland, Julie Rowsell, Kelly Stronach, Jane Strong, Suzanne Stubbins, Ditie Tsotsos, Marie VanderDoelen, Wendy Williams, Martha Wood.

Paul Smith has been a tireless supporter of both the Caledon Public Library and the Caledon Parent Child Centre. As a library and program helper, Paul brings enthusiasm and energy to both places that make everyone smile.

Joe Stein for the last 13 years has been Mr. Storyteller at the Caledon East Library making story time a magical experience for many young children. Joe entertains families with magic tricks, bubble blowing activities and crafts. He is truly an asset to the family fun programs.

The Friends of the Caledon Library group has been active for almost 10 years. They enhance library services by fund-raising through events such as the Gigantic Book Sale in Bolton, Theatre Night in Caledon Village and Scrabble Night in Caledon East. Funds raised in these events help purchase items that may not have been possible like paperback book racks. They are host to book clubs, Remembrance Day Tea and a Visiting Service for individual who can not leave their home. Volunteers include Ena Badger, Christine Cooper, Margaret Dunn, Laura Forbes, Sylvia Hahn, Josie Law, Velvet Matinia, Pam McKinley, Donnie Mctaggart, Diane Newdick, Carol Ohlers, Irma Proctor, Sheila Robertson, Barbara Sweeney, Jackie Trow, Joyce Van Arkel, Marjorie Wilkinson.

Brian Moran has volunteered his time for the past 9 years at Peace Ranch. He offers skill development programs to individuals with metal illnesses. Brian is adored by all the staff at Peace Ranch and most of all, his non-judgmental attitude is an integral part of this community.

Dave Rutherford has volunteered his time with Citizens for Clean Caledon for 7 years, the Terra Cotta Community Centre for 18 years, and the Caledon Trailway for eight years. Dave has donated his time and heavy equipment to construct the Rocky Ramp Fish Passage and to improve drainage on the Caledon Trailway. Dave is also involved in the Algonquin Peel – Energy from Waste Environmental Committee and community projects such as the restoration of The Forge.

Council

Committee Awards

Council committee members dedicate their time to increasing the quality of life in the Town of Caledon.

The Heritage Committee, Don Mitchell, Jean Procter, Jim Connery, Carol Martin; Caledon Public Library Board, Vittoria Boudreau, Virginia DeLauro, Lisa Harker, Preet Kang, Erika Pratt, Margot Scott, Elisabeth Zaffino; Caledon Environmental Committee, Scott Caspell, Robert Gardner, Scott Lunau, Ross Lashbrook, Paul Newall.

Sport and Recreation Awards

Anne Deane is an invaluable contributor to the effective operations of the Caledon Village Tennis Club for 15 years. Anne is responsible for all administrative duties including their newsletter.

Nick Indelicato is a long time soccer, hockey and basketball coach. He held position of president with the Bolton Wanderers Soccer Club for six years. Nick was instrumental in bringing soccer to the Valleywood community and responsible for lining the soccer fields, for longer than anyone can remember!

Please turn to page 19 >

GIRL DONATES HAIR FOR CAUSE

Maire Balzan, a grade 8 student at St. Cornelius School, will donate some of her hair in aid of cancer. June 8, she will be cutting and donating her hair to make wigs for cancer victims. She is asking for the community's help. Any donation you can make will help us all "cut cancer." Donations will be accepted at the school office and the Caledon East CIBC until June 5. Please make cheques payable to Maire Balzan re Mane miracle.

Cancer Surgery | Cardiac Procedures | Cataract Surgery | Hip or Knee Replacement | MRI or CT Scan

ontariowaittimes.com

It's worth knowing.

If you or someone you know is waiting for one of the above procedures, it's worth knowing there's something you can do right now. Go to our new website for information on hospital wait times right across the province. You'll also find many helpful facts you and your doctor can use to make better decisions about your health care.

For more information call 1-888-779-7767 (TTY 1-800-387-5559) or please visit www.ontariowaittimes.com

Paid for by the Government of Ontario.

