Girls' under 12 rep team opener

A wickedly cold Victoria Day evening saw the opening soccer game for the brand new Bolton Wanderers Under 12 girls' rep team against Guelph. The team is very grateful to its sponsor, Garden Foods. The girls are playing in Ontario's South Region Soccer League this summer.

Guelph took a one-goal lead from an unstoppable, wind-assisted shot. Bolton defended well for the remainder of the half against their opponents and the strong wind. Shortly after half time, Bolton levelled the score with a beautiful high shot far beyond the Guelph goalie's outstretched hands. Bolton, now fired up, continued to pressure the Guelph goal. A second goal resulted from a long pass which cut from right to left through the Guelph defence put Bolton ahead. The wind began to disappear and bright sunshine saw two more Bolton goals concluding from some great passing.

The girls on the team are Laura Cola, Hayley Christian, Rae & Billie Gore, Siena Hilley Bland, Monica Masucci, Myley Marin, Dina

Riccio, Amrit Uppal, Daniella Cesario, Christina Diaz, Dominique Ursini, Madelaine Sanginesi, Ally McIlwaine, Samantha Hawrelluk & Shelby Diebert.

The team is coached by Mario Diaz, Nino Masucci, Ian Hilley, John Sanginesi & managed by Rosanna Spanu.

PJP Panthers at tournament

May 8, the intermediate girls' soccer team from Pope John Paul II School in Bolton travelled to the Vaughan Soccer Centre in Woodbridge to take part in a tournament with a number of area teams. The girls' team, consisting of several under-age players, pleasantly surprised everyone with the level of their play.

The girls won their first game against St.Edmund School 1-0. They tied their second game 0-0 with St. Cornelius School. The girls won their third game against Holy Cross School 2-0 and advanced to the semifinals. In a very close and hard-fought game the girls lost 1-0 in overtime penalty kicks. They are very proud of the girls accomplishments!

Team members include Monica Masucci, Hailey Christian, Madeleine Sanginesi, Meghan McCabe, Laura Pallotta. Special thanks to coaches Mr. MacNeil and Mrs. Moncur and to all the parents who drove and cheered on the team!
