

100 years of sports history was a great trip down memory lane

Betty's exhibit housed several artifacts, and trophies and was well viewed. Neil Marr grabbed everyone's attention with soccer, and told of several memories when he coached and refereed 20 years ago. We learned of the funny antics young players got into, such as scaling the trees and making dandelion chains. The soccer ball was the least of their interest.

The highlight of the night was our own hockey hall of fame NHL star and Olympic gold medalist, Bert McCaffrey. Bert's grandson, Mark Ebdon, and granddaughter Morna (Ebdon) Porter, as well as his great-grandchildren were all present. Bert's great-grandson's wife, Tara Porter, made a most moving presentation, which we were all honoured and privileged to hear. On display was his Olympic gold medal in its original case, which was given in 1924 when hockey was first accepted into the Olympic Games. The family shared their scrapbook, pictures, and memorabilia with us, and many revisited that exhibit several times over the course of the evening to see the high points of Bert's career from playing with the Montreal Canadiens, to the Foster Hewitt picture, and much more. Also, on display was a St. Pats (later known as the Toronto Maple Leafs) shirt with his name (McCaffrey) and his number (1) on it, which the Hockey Hall of Fame had sent to the family, upon their request.

Another important exhibit was the Hartley Davis Remembered exhibit, which Jean Proctor delivered with great personal touch. Hartley's medal and certificate from Premier William Davis and civic award from the Town of Caledon were on display along with several other family artifacts.

The Ralph Naylor Family shared the treasured hockey gear of his father, John Naylor, which all enjoyed. John, a volunteer firefighter, was well remembered for his valuable contribution to the local sporting community.

A memorial awards section was dedicated to the memory of George Switzer, Don Van Wyck and others, so that their contribution(s) would not be forgotten. Among the trophies on exhibit were the T. Roy McCartney (first softball trophy); a photo of the "lost" Reeve's Cup (first soccer trophy), the Herb Brooks

Memorial, the Cheryl Kelly Memorial, and several other North Peel Lions trophies.

More than 78 people enjoyed the opportunity to reminisce and renew old acquaintances. It was a grand evening of celebrating 100 years of sports in Caledon East.
