

Palgrave's turkey dinner

You know fall is upon us when the children go back to school, the leaves change colour, and the fall church dinners begin. The annual turkey dinner at Palgrave United Church always draws a good crowd. This year's event will be held Thursday, Oct. 5. The church is now wheelchair accessible and guests start arriving at 4 p.m. for the dinner which begins at 4:30 p.m. and goes continuously until 7 p.m. or whenever the last person is fed.

The entire congregation works to make this a special event and upwards of 400 people are expected to enjoy turkey with all the trimmings including hot vegetables, home made beets, cranberries, stuffing and lots and lots of pies made by the famous bakers in the church congregation. The dinner is buffet style with beverages and desserts served at the table. Take-out meals are also available. Tickets are $14 for adults, $6 for children ages 6 - 10, and just $1 for pre-schoolers. No advance tickets but no one will be turned away.

There will be music to entertain guests waiting to be seated. Make plans to celebrate Thanksgiving without all the work and join the friendly folk at Palgrave United Church.

LOKA AT CLAUDE CHURCH

Claude Presbyterian Church is fast becoming the musical centre of south Caledon. Several times a year, the church hosts music concerts, and there is a regular fiddle jam on the third Friday of each month. Friday, Sept. 29 at 7:30 p.m., the Claude Church congregation is hosting LOKA, a four-piece band who play the very best in traditional Celtic music. Loretto Reid (wooden flute, whistles), October Browne (guitar, mandolin, banjo, bodhran and cittern), Kelly Hood (Uilleann Pipes), Anne Lederman (fiddles) have brought the world's Celtic music together, forming an unbeatable combination of musical virtuosity and lively tunes. (www.loka.ca). These four ladies are likely the four of the best traditional musicians in Canada today and Claude Church is very pleased to be able to present them for the enjoyment of Caledon's music lovers. To reserve tickets, please call 905 838 3512, or stop by the Inglewood General Store to purchase in person.
