

Bolton United turkey supper

It's that time of year again – annual church turkey suppers. Bolton United Church invites you to attend their supper Saturday, Nov. 4, from 4:30 until 7 p.m. Adults pay $14 for a hot turkey dinner, complete with homemade pies and a beverage. Children (5-10) have the same menu and pay only $6. Tickets are sold only at the door that night. Take-outs are available. For further info call 905-857-2615 or 905-857-3029.

Remembrance services

To honour the memory of all Canadians who have served their country in time of war, a number of Remembrance Day services have been planned throughout Caledon. All members of the community are invited to participate.

The Town of Caledon will host two services in October: Our local Royal Canadian Legion branches will hold two services in November:

Alton - Royal Canadian Legion #449, Saturday, Nov. 11, at 11 a.m., 1267 Queen Street, Alton.

Bolton – Royal Canadian Legion #371, Sunday, Nov. 5, at 1 p.m. Participants meet at the Bolton fire hall (50 Ann Street) and the parade will march to the Cenotaph for wreath-laying ceremony.

This little boy was thrilled to find this baseball glove at the garage sale.

SENIORS' SALE DRAWS CROWD

The annual garage and bake sale and silent auction hosted by the Caledon Seniors' Centre at Rotary Place drew a large crowd recently. Here, Pat Everson and her supporters sold the home-made goodies to visitors.
