Dorado Stars swimmers shine at home and away

The Dorado Stars Swim Club hosted its first invitational swim meet at the Mayfield Recreation Complex recently. Teams from Lindsay, North York, Scarborough and Orillia came to Caledon to race hard and fast against 31 local Stars swimmers.

The Stars shone brightly indeed with 132 personal best times out of 143 individual swims and 84 top 8 finishes! While half the team stayed home to compete, the other half traveled to Barrie to make waves at the 2006 Aqua Fest. Twenty-seven Caledon swimmers combined for 91 personal best times out of 114 swims and placed 38 swims in the top 8 final and an additional 42 in the consolation final. Outstanding overall results for the weekend - 223 personal best times and 122 top 8 finishes! Way to go Caledon!
