Volunteers Needed

The Headwaters Family Visit Centre is a program which provides a safe and non-threatening setting for parents to visit or exchange their children. The Centre is funded by the Ministry of the Attorney General and operated by Dufferin Child and Family Services. We currently need volunteers.

We are seeking several volunteers available for two shifts per month (8 hours total) to work with the Centre's staff. The Centre operates on Tuesday and Friday evenings as well as Saturdays and Sundays. The Centre is closed for all Statutory Holidays.

DUTIES:

- providing supervision of visits and exchanges occurring at the Centre
- assisting in providing activities for children during Centre operations
- assisting in providing safe, positive visiting experiences between children and their parents
- recording observations of parent/child interactions during scheduled visits and exchanges

QUALIFICATIONS:

- 18 years of age and older
- criminal records check
- good understanding of child development and the trauma associated with separation and divorce

Please contact Jacqueline Moore, Coordinator Volunteers at 519-941-1530 ext 246 or via email at jacqueline.moore@dcafs.on.ca
