

Tri-Star/Just in Time minor atom AA Hawks strong

In Flamboro Dec. 9, the minor atom AA Hawks got sweet revenge from an early season loss by outfighting the Sabres 3-1.

Flamboro scored the first goal of the game when the Hawks were unable to clear the puck out of their zone. In the second period, Conner Morro head-manned the puck to Sean Nottle who carried the puck over the blue line then slid a pass over to Tyler Whitten who beat the goalie with a hard shot. Another three-man passing play between David Pillsworth and Christian Hauck ended with Jesse Fir sinking the go ahead goal in the last seconds of period two. Goalie D'Amico made an impressive save on a Flamboro breakaway to keep the game at 2-1.

With Caledon on a power play, Nicky "Noodle" Curro fired one past the Sabre goalie from a pass from Nando Sirianni for the third goal. Some strong defensive play and nice shots from blueliners Laura Magliocchi and JD Donatelli helped to achieve this win.

Hawks ground Eagles

The Burlington Eagles flew into Mayfield Dec. 14, but it was the Caledon Hawks who soared over the visiting team 5-2.

Mitchell Duggan dumped the puck deep into the Eagle zone in the first period when Fir and Pillsworth took over, and sent the puck to Hauck who shot in the first goal. An awesome breakout with Nicky Curro, Jordan Bokla and Nando Sirianni ended up with Sirianni getting the Hawks' second goal with a high top-corner shot. A turnover in the neutral zone led to Hauck capitalizing on a great pass from Fir to score the third goal. Tyler Whitten popped the fourth goal from a corner passing play with linemates Conner Morro and Nottle. Whitten was first to the puck in the crease to poke in the fifth goal from a long shot from Justin Donatelli. Goalie D'Amico consistently challenged the Eagle shooters, making several great pad saves to stop 16 opposing shots. The strong Caledon team utilized their newly defined "Hawkspeed" to out skate, out shoot, and outplay the Burlington team.

Hawks visit Eagles

The Hawks finished up the 2006 year traveling to Burlington and overpowering the Eagles with a convincing victory.

Fir was the goal scorer in the first period with first a high, hard shot past the Eagle goalie. In what is probably a new team record, only 8 seconds later Jesse got his second of the period in a scrambled play with linemates Pillsworth and Hauck. Sirianni picked up a loose puck in the crease to make it 3 goals for Caledon. Bokla was the helper for this one. Hats were tossed onto the ice when Hauck and Pillsworth made an awesome passing play to set Fir up for his hat trick. Whitten scored the fifth Caledon goal as Nottle and Donatelli applied lots of pressure to get to the Eagle net. Fir took advantage of an unsuccessful Burlington pass, stealing the puck and sliding it over to Hauck who sunk the sixth goal. Fir's fourth goal of the afternoon was in the third period on a Caledon power play. Final score was 7-1 Caledon.

Sabres duffed

The Hawks hosted the Flamborough Sabres at Mayfield Dec. 17 and handed them a 7-0 whopping.

The game saw the home team reaping the benefits of team play as seven different players put the puck into the opposing net. Curro was set up by Bokla and Sirianni to get the first Hawk goal. Sirianni fired a high shot under the crossbar past the Sabre goaltender after Jordan Kreller managed to keep the puck in the offensive end.

Pillsworth scored when Fir passed him the puck out from behind the net and Whitten popped the fourth Caledon goal in a similar play from Morro and Nottle.

There was no scoring in the second period, and with only one minute left in the third, Bokla got a rebound from Whitten's shot and popped the fifth goal. Two quick late goals came from Nottle assisted by Laura Magliocchi, and Morro who was standing right on the crease, slid in a goal from a pressing play with Curro and Pillsworth.

The Hawks outshot the Sabres in all three periods and goalie Spencer Boyd stood strong at the edge of the crease, cutting down all the angles and was rewarded with a shutout.
