Tri-Star Landscaping/Just in Time Hawks start playoffs strong

The minor atom AA Hawks are off to a great start in the OMHA round robin playdowns.

January 21, the Hawks traveled to St. Catharines to challenge the "candy cane striped team" and came home with a convincing 5-1 victory.

Tyler Whitten started the Caledon scoring, driving to the net and directing a shot from Sean Nottle behind the St. Catharines' goalie. A few seconds later Jesse Fir popped one it, with assists going to Christian Hauck and David Pillsworth.

In the second period, Laura Magliocchi, continuing to be very strong on the blue line, kept the puck in the offensive zone, allowing Nicky Curro from Jordan Bokla and Nando Sirianni to get the third Caledon goal.

Curro performed one of his patented wrap-around goals, assisted by Sirianni, to start the third. St. Catharines came back with one goal, but Nottle showed which team was in charge by firing a short-handed goal on a breakaway late in the game.

Storm doused

Four days later, the Guelph Jr. Storm team visited Mayfield. The Hawks were first on the scoreboard when Jordan Donatelli put the puck on Fir's stick, sending a long shot into the opposing net. Guelph came right back with a goal but then Fir got his second goal of the night with only seconds left in the first.

Guelph managed to tie the game once again in the second. Bokla's high shot dropped in behind the Guelph goaltender to give Caledon the lead in the third. Hawk goalie, Joseph D'Amico made a key glove save to hold onto that lead. The Storm eventually pulled their goaltender in attempt to get a goal back but Bokla received a pass from Lukas Richardson to send him away towards the empty net to secure the 4-1 win with 10 seconds left on the clock.

Home ice blowout

The Caledon home game versus St. Catharines Feb. 1 was a one-sided event as the Hawks skated away with a 7-1 win.

Nicholas Amato fired a shot at the St. Catharines goalie, which rebounded right onto Curro's stick. Curro made sure his second shot went past the goalie after an unsuccessful attempt at an earlier penalty shot.

The Caledon scoring continued in the second period when Sirianni took a pass from Jordan Bokla, skated half the length of the ice and sunk his first goal of the night. Conner Morro sent a perfect pass out from behind the net onto Nottle's stick. Nottle then fired the puck top shelf, over the goalie's glove. Sirianni charged to the net and redirected the puck past the opposing goalie from a nice wrist shot from Bokla, making the score 4-0.

The puck had just dropped in the third when Whitten, set up by Morro put a high wrist shot into the St. Catharines net. Defenceman Mitchell Duggan got the assist after the rebound from his shot from the blue line was picked up by Fir. Morro scored a shorthanded goal, assisted by Nottle to end the Hawks' attack.

After delivering a solid game for his team, goalie Spencer Boyd had his shutout spoiled with a St. Catharines goal late in the third.

The minor atom AAs learned once again that if they play as a team and use their "Hawkspeed" they are a tough group to beat.

Hawks split with Raiders in playoff action

End-to-end action was the order of the day Jan. 25 when Roth Diamond Tools minor bantam AEs squared off against cross town rivals Georgetown Raiders.

In the first the Hawks struck paydirt with Christian Bonaldi finishing the play for linemates Brandon Richard and Cameron Miller. Georgetown knotted it up before the end of the period.

In the second the Hawks controlled the play and were rewarded when David Rothfuchs worked the puck in deep to J.T. Gore who dominated down low and fed a perfect pass across the goalmouth for the tap in from James Harkins. As time ticked away Ryan Rausch freed up the puck to Giancarlo Cianflocca with the feed in front where Chris Scrivo stretched across to knock home the goal at the one-second mark. Georgetown found the mark to draw within one at 13:32 of the third. From then on the staunch defence of Tyler Symonds, Cody Ruff, Nolan Pearce and David Rothfuchs were strong in front of Marco Chiechi who backstopped the victory.

Raiders fight back

Two nights later the action switched to Georgetown.

The Hawks again started the scoring with Bonaldi finding the mark assisted by Michael Magliocchi and James Harkins. The Georgetown squad replied with a power play goal and a second tally with 6 seconds remaining. The Caledon boys responded in the second with a goal from "Maggs" Magliocchi assisted by Harkins and J.T. Gore. Then it was Richard burying one with play making from Cam Miller and Pearce. Captain Gore then scored with help from Magliocchi and Harkins. Georgetown refused to quit and scored two goals before the period ended with all square.

The third was a see-saw affair until with 4:33 left David Rothfuchs netted a slap shot from the point assisted by Rausch and Scrivo. The suspect officiating continue to play a part in the game as the Hawks sustained three penalties in a row in the third to match the previous six they endured. This resulted in a late Georgetown marker and the Hawks entered OT a man down.

One minute in the Raiders found the mark to continue their solid performance against our Hawks. Next up are the Stoney Creek Warriors go Hawks!

Local therapist worked at World University Games

Caledon East athletic therapist, Andrea Prieur, was chosen as one of six core medical staff for the Canadian delegation at the 23rd World University Games in Turino, Italy with 200 Canadian athletes in attendance.

Prieur, certified athletic therapist, and one of the owners of Core Solutions Physiotherapy and Wellness in Caledon East, was chosen as part of the medical team for the Games. These games have been held all over the world, and were just held in Turino at many new facilities prepared for the 2006 Olympics.

The games wrapped up Jan. 28 and Andrea covered different events and worked on our Canadian athletes in the clinic.

Andrea is a member of the Canadian Athletic Therapists Association and was chosen as one of six people in the medical team partly due to her past experience at the Canada Games and Pan American Games, as well as her continued education and experience in the clinical field.

Andrea worked at the cross country ski venue for the first week, and now covers alpine events at Bardenaccia for the remainder of her stay.

The Canadian athletes are varsity athletes at Universities across Canada. Canadian Interuniversity Sport is the national governing body of university sport in Canada. Fifty-two universities, 10,000 student-athletes and 550 coaches vie for 19 national championships in 11 different sports. CIS also provides high performance international opportunities for Canadian student-athletes at Winter and Summer Universiades, and numerous world university championships.
