

Welcome March at the Caledon seniors' centre

By Lloyd Bittle

Retiring? Retired? Our Seniors' Centre tip of the month to all 55+ "upteens."

"Think young and positive, be willing to accept new ideas and share your knowledge and experience with others."

We can help you bridge the gap and plan a happy, successful retirement. Our centre is the place for you! Our 500 members say, "Only once a stranger." Consider this a personal invitation to you to "come on down, or up" and join us.

A Welsh-Irish welcome to all to join us at the centre. Next month officially begins our financial and administrative year 2007-2008. It is planned to be our best yet. Your active participation will make it a year to remember. We welcome spring and a month of Leeks and Shamrocks. St. David's Day, Thursday, March 1 commemorates the great Welsh Saint who lived his dictum "to live more simply that others may simply live." Then with a "fiddle, fife and clogs" we welcome Saturday, March 17, St. Patrick, shamrocks, and Erin go Bragh. Spring is on the way and where better to be than at the Caledon Seniors' Centre.

Spring flowers and buds are ready to pop. You get ready to pop too and be a booster at our Caledon active Senior Centre.
