

Justin Trudeau to speak at fund-raiser in Brampton

Rapport Youth & Family Services is excited to announce that Justin Trudeau is scheduled as the keynote speaker at their upcoming fund-raiser. The fund-raiser is scheduled for April 3 at The Brampton Rose Theatre.

Tickets are $75 for floor seats and $50 for balcony seats, with a reception scheduled for 6 p.m. The MC for the evening is Hina Khan, host of the television show Save Us from Our House, seen on the "W" Network. A special introduction by former Ontario Premier William (Bill) Davis is set to commence the evening.

The education and empowerment of youth are priorities that have dominated Justin Trudeau's professional and personal life. Shortly after completing a bachelor of arts degree in English literature at McGill University, Trudeau moved to Vancouver to earn a bachelor's of education degree from the University of British Columbia. For the next four years, Trudeau devoted himself to teaching children of all ages in public and private schools, in a range of subjects, which included English, French and math.

Trudeau presently resides in Montreal, with his wife Sophie Grégoire, where he is completing a master's degree in environmental geography at McGill. His work with a large number of diverse organizations and levels of government keeps him traveling extensively to help ensure that Canada is prepared to meet the challenges and responsibilities its future holds.

He is the eldest son of late Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau and Margaret Trudeau.

Rapport Youth & Family Services primarily provides individual, family, and group counselling for adolescents and young adults experiencing personal, social, or familial challenges. Clients seen at Rapport are typically between 12 and 20 years of age, and are either residing, attending school or working in the Region of Peel. All services at Rapport are provided on a voluntary and confidential basis. Most of Rapport's services are provided free of charge.

For tickets, call the box office at 905-874-2800.

Old house restoration workshop

Heritage Caledon, in conjunction with Edifice Old Home Magazine, is pleased to present an Old House Restoration Workshop in Caledon East Saturday, April 21.

A five-hour workshop on ways to maintain, restore and rehabilitate your old house. Learn about modern materials, techniques and historically accurate restoration practices. Topics include roofing, masonry & siding, wood windows, plaster, trim, painting, caulking, problems with damp, insulation, kitchen and baths and much more!

Workshop leader Dr.

Christopher Cooper is editor-in-chief of Edifice Old Home Magazine. With 24 years experience in the restoration of historic buildings, Dr. Cooper is recognized in Canada and internationally as one of the premier professionals in the field. An entertaining speaker, Cooper has lectured widely about the conservation of older buildings, and has worked extensively on television, including the soon to be released "Cooper's Canada."

The event will be held at the Caledon Community Complex (6215 Old Church Rd.). Tickets are $50 per person, and include a catered lunch. RSVP by April 18, to Edifice, 519-752-9801 or oldhome@edificemagazine.com or www.oldhome.ca.

Application is supported

Caledon council recently supported the financial grant application being submitted by the Caledon Canada Day committee to the Department of Canadian Heritage in relation to the Celebrate Canada! program.
