BRAGG, CAROL ANN (nee Fenwick)
 Passed away peacefully after a long battle with cancer, on April 6th, 2007, at the age of 52. "It is with a joy of life, grace and dignity that I leave this world. The impossible task to leave family and friends so we have no control. I will continue onto the circle of family and friends on the other side and try to find a room with a view. Our spirituality will join me in heaven. There will be hugs and love for all there on that side, perhaps an answer. Working here with children leaving a legacy of confidence, love and joy brought me a great reward. Much more than material things in this world if I left my family with a joy of humour, compassion for others and understanding of hard work, sympathy and empathy for others around me I have have done a good job. I felt honoured and privileged to have so many family and friends cross my path to teach me things I hope I learned well."
