709 IN MEMORIAM

AVISON, Bill

In loving memory of our son, brother & uncle Bill who left us 5 years ago.

May the winds of love blow softly

And whisper so you'll hear

That we'll always love and miss you

And wish that you were here.

Mom, Herb, Darlene,
Jeff & families.

SOMETIMES

Some time has passed without you

It seems so very long
Sometimes I sit in disbelief your gone.

The crying doesn't help things
Sometimes it hurts so bad.

To carry on a normal life,
Now that I have no "DAD".

I miss your intuition,

Your knowledge, strength, and love

And as I try to carry on
I know you watch from above.

Your memory it still lingers
Your voice I hear so clear

Yet you may be so far away
You're with me ever near.

My girls they miss their PaPa
They also cry for you

But that is when I find my strength

To pick up and start anew.

I explain that you are with them and

Never leave their side

You see there every move they make

That you never really died.

For as long as there's a memory
That a person still survives

There soul is kept within our hearts

Their vision in our eyes.

Of all the times we spent here
While you were on this earth

You always stood beside me
Even watched me giving birth.

A father, Husband, Papa,
An Uncle, Brother, Friend.

You touched so many people
They were with you at the end.

That's what really matters,
That's what keeps us sane,

Thinking of the good times,
And seeing you again.

If I had only just one wish,
On this your special day,

I'll hold you close and tell you,
That "I love you Dad"

Please stay. If only for a little while,

So I can say goodbye,
And tell the girls you love them,

And that they shouldn't cry.
Then I would watch so closely,

As you turn and walk away,
Into the light that keeps you now,

Safe and out of harm's way.
So here you have it Daddy,

My feelings put in words.
To tell you that "I love you"

Even though it sometimes hurts.
I miss you and I love you,

I'll see you sometime when,
The time has come for us to be

Together, Once again.

In loving memory of "My Dad"

Birthday Papa) By: Sandra

Wheels moving for bike tours

Cyclists of all ages and abilities are tuning up their bikes and taking to the streets in preparation for a one- or two-day cycle through Ontario's streets and countryside. They are preparing for the RONA MS Bike Tours, events organized by the MS Society of Canada that raise funds for multiple sclerosis research and services.

With route lengths varying from 30 to 180 kilometres, the RONA MS Bike Tours are geared to cyclists of various ages and abilities. All tours include food and beverages as well as rest stops, cyclist support vehicles, bicycle repair, and prizes. Cyclists raise pledges and are eligible for a variety of prizes based on amount raised.

Proceeds from events like the RONA MS Bike Tours funds services for people with MS and their families, as well as helping to advance the MS Society's national research program. Researchers are discovering new treatments for MS as they get closer to finding a cure.

"There is much research taking place around the world that is looking to improve the life of people with MS and eliminate the disease for future generations," said Dr. William J. McIlroy, national medical advisor for the MS Society of Canada.

Five RONA MS Bike Tours will take place in Ontario this year - Ottawa to Kemptville (Aug. 11 and 12), Brampton to Waterloo (Aug. 18 and 19), Niagara Region (Aug. 26), and Toronto (Sept. 9).

More information about the RONA MS Bike Tours is available at www.ms biketours.com or by calling 1-800-268-7582, ext. 3038.
