

MP Tilson demands answers from Senate

Dufferin — Caledon MP David Tilson blasted the Liberal-dominated Senate last week for stalling the passage of Bill C-2 (Tackling Violent Crimes Bill).

“Canadians are fed up with a justice system that puts the rights of criminals ahead of the rights of law-abiding citizens,” Tilson was quoted as saying in the House of Commons. “When will the Liberals stop sitting on their hands and support

Bill C-2?”

The Conservative government’s Tackling Violent Crimes Bill includes legislation to raise the age of protection from 14 to 16, imposes mandatory jail times for serious gun crimes, toughens bail rules for gun-related crimes and cracks down on drug-impaired driving.

Passage of the bill has been delayed in the Liberal-dominated Senate since November.

20-YEAR FRIENDSHIP BLOSSOMS INTO SUCCESSFUL EUCHRE FUND-RAISER

20 years ago, a group of eight young moms, connected through their children’s school and activities, formed a very special friendship. They loved getting together to share their child-rearing experiences, to have fun and play a game or two of euchre. As moms, they were aware of the importance of supporting the less privileged in their community. They decided to put their event planning talents to the test and over the last two years, they hosted two very successful Ladies Euchre Evenings at the Palgrave Orange Hall. These amazing moms have now raised more than $3,600. All proceeds have been directed towards Caledon Community Services’ initiatives that assist local youth. These Euchre Moms remind us all of the goodness within our community. Seen here (first row) Janice Jones, Karen Wozniak, Debbie Kuchar, (second row) Karen Baldwin, Laura Whiteside, Rita Cantelon, Kim Webb and Irene McCool.
