710 CARD OF THANKS

SMITH - I would like to take this opportunity to thank all our friends who were able to plow themselves out to come to my 80th Birthday Party. I would also like to thank you for all the lovely cards, flowers and gifts, it was so thoughtful and so very much appreciated. A special thank you to my husband "Bob" for a day I will always remember and the Caledon Seniors for all their help in arranging a magnificent party. To Karen and Don White for their help and to all of you who came, thank you so very, very much. Becky Smith

ARMSTRONG – Thanks to everyone who telephoned, sent cards, made visits or inquiries while in the hospital and since my return home. Special thanks to all that have helped or offered to help. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered. Sincerely Allan

McLAREN - Words do not thank people enough for all the flowers, cards and well wishes that were sent to a wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother and the best golfing partner anyone would want. Please everyone accept the thanks we send your way as recognition and appreciation for all that was said and done for Betty. Thank You, Al & Bill McLaren – We have been touched by an angel. Betty was an Angel. d170g off a Bombers' defender, making it 3-1 for the Blackhawks. But they wouldn't end there. In the dying seconds of the first period, David Ryan scored. Chris Hunter and Hudson James would get the assists. The period would end with the Blackhawks up 4-1.

After a brief huddle by the bench, it was back to the game. The Blackhawks would continue to dominate. The defence, led by Gavin Stone and Tyler Gillis, continued to play strong. The forwards constant fore checking, with Eric Lowry and Chris Hunter leading the way, pinned the Bombers deep in their zone at every opportunity. The goalies, 975 PETS

Russ McCanna and Steven Nelson, continued to turn away any and all Bombers attempts to score.

The Bombers had a hard time getting the puck out of their own end. Four minutes into the period, Ryan, on a power play, would pocket another insurance goal. Christopher Cola would get the helper. The period would end 5-1.

While history had shown between these two teams, ties were common, but this time the Blackhawks had a big cushion and they would continue to dominate. With just less than five minutes left in the game, Steve Luongo would take a pass from the boards from John Sopinka and take advantage of a well positioned Chris Hunter screening the goalie to slide a shot into the net. The minutes would continue to melt away. With two seconds still left on the clock, the Blackhawks would clear the puck for the last time. Time to commence the celebration – piling up on the goalie.

These boys had worked so hard as a team. The game would end 6-1 for the Intra City Champions 2007-2008.

The Blackhawks would like to thank all their team and player sponsors, without them the opportunity to win the Intra City Championship may never had been possible, Caledon Phoenix, Steeles Paint and Decorating, Secure-Lee Alarms, Karen Wilcock Royal LePage RCR Realty, MARS Canada Inc.
