

CCS to donate books to Regional program

Caledon Community Services (CCS) is celebrating Family Literacy Day by donating books.

Visit one of the CCS Eco-Stores today (Thursday), tomorrow or Saturday, and for every three books purchased for $1, CCS will donate a book in your honour to the Region of Peel's Books and Blanket program for women and children in crisis. Radio Caledon will be on location at Chez Thrift via the Remote Van today from 2 to 4 p.m., and at the ReUstore from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday. The ReUstore is at 109 Industrial Rd. in Bolton (Region of Peel Recycling Centre). Chez Thrift is at 301 Queen St.

South, in Bolton.

The CCS Language Instruction for Newcomers to Canada (LINC) and Eh Café program participants will also be participating by answering questions from the A-B-C Board Game found on the Family Literacy Day Web site at http://www.abc-canada.org/en/family_literacy_day as well as creating Haiku poems with a literacy theme.

The LINC program at CCS offers free English language classes with computers for newcomers to Canada living in Caledon and surrounding communities. For more information, visit www.ccs4u.org or call (905) 584-2300.

BIRTHDAY CONTRIBUTION TO CCS

Jared Le Normand from Palgrave celebrated his ninth birthday Jan. 5, and since he did rather well at Christmas, he asked people coming to his birthday party to bring contributions to the Caledon Food Bank, rather than gifts. Jared, his sister Kaitlyn, 2, and brothers Matthew, 6, and Andrew, 4, last week delivered the contributions to Fiona Ott, manager of fund-raising and communications for Caledon Community Services.
