

Jobs Caledon to feature career info with OPP

Would you want a job serving your community? Consider a career with the Ontario Provincial Police (OPP).

Representatives of OPP will be at Jobs Caledon in Bolton next Thursday (June 23) from 10 a.m. until noon to discuss current employment opportunities. Constable Clayton Brown will explain the application process, what the minimum requirements are and how to step beyond the minimum. He will also give wage details, as well as describe available promotions and other opportunities within the organization.

Representing one of the largest deployed police services in North America, OPP maintains 79 detachments and 87 satellites in six regions throughout the province.

"The Ontario Provincial Police are actively looking for eligible candidates that are committed to a safe community, a secure Ontario and who reflect the diversity of the communities we serve," Brown said.

To book a seat for this presentation, phone Jobs Caledon at (905) 584-2300, ext. 200, or e-mail jobs@ccs4u.org

The Jobs Caledon Employment Resource Centre is funded by Employment Ontario and is one of the many initiatives operated by Caledon Community Services (CCS). As a community-impact organization, CCS supports residents of Caledon and surrounding communities. All support, received from Caledon and the immediate areas, ensures that the agency continues to fulfill its mission "to help people help themselves by working creatively and responding to community needs."

The main office of CCS is at 18 King St. East in the Royal Courtyards, Bolton.

For more information visit www.ccs4u.org

OPP are hiring. Constable Clayton Brown will be a guest speaker at Jobs Caledon. He is seen here with Jobs Caledon Employment Specialist Dan Regliszyn.
